Margaret Harrison: Accumulations Exhibition closing event

23 January 2016 2:00 pm - 23 January 2016 4:30 pm

Join us for an afternoon of discussion and singing as we mark the final weekend of Margaret Harrison's Accumulations exhibition.

Inspired by the works on view, curator Helena Reckitt (Senior Lecturer in Curating at Goldsmiths, University of London and co-author of Art and Feminism, Phaidon Press, 2001) speaks about the history of feminist art. Artist and activist Roweena Russell addresses her involvement in the Independent Women North East project in the context of her practice.

In response to Harrison's investigation of the Greenham Common Women's Peace Camp, Streetwise Opera orchestrates a sing-along workshop using the protesters' original songbook.
